

Remarks

The Examiner's reconsideration of the application is urged in view of the amendments above and further comments below in relation to the requirement for restriction.

To be responsive to the requirement, Applicants provisionally elect group I, but with traverse for the reasons stated below.

It is Applicants' submission that the claims grouped by the Examiner in Groups I and II should be considered as a first group and that the claims classified in Groups III and IV should be combined as a second group.

As regards Groups ^I I and II identified by the Examiner, Applicants note that claims 1, 3 and 17 (Group I) did not contain an explicit limitation to a telephone terminal and Applicants note also that claim 19 (Group II) was erroneously limited to a "mobile" telephone terminal. It would appear that the latter limitation resulted in the different categorisation of the claims of Group II.

Applicants have therefore amended claims 1, 13 and 17 to include the limitation that the web pages are provided to a telephone terminal employed by a call member, and have also amended claim 19 such that the telephone terminal is no longer specified to be a mobile telephone terminal.

It is submitted that as a result of these amendments, both Groups I and II (as identified by the Examiner) are now drawn to providing a web page to a telephone terminal of a call member based on a record of pre-specified information, and should remain together.

Similarly, claim 24 of Group III has been limited to providing a web page to a telephone terminal employed by a member of a call, and the limitation to a mobile terminal in claim 29 (Group IV) has been removed so that both groups III and IV as identified by the Examiner) are now drawn to providing a web page to a telephone terminal of a call member based on time of day information. Claim 28 was not addressed by the Examiner.

It is therefore Applicants' submission that amended claims 1, 2, 5-11 and 13-21 should be considered as a first group and claims 24-29 should be considered as a second group.

In view of the foregoing, further action by the Examiner is awaited.
